

Please do not try to change the No Call List law in Wisconsin. The list has been a godsend in protecting the consumers from unsolicited telemarketing. We do not need to give the Banking industry or any other industry the right to intrude upon the public's right to privacy. I am quite able of locating and contacting any company with which I wish to conduct business with and I absolutely do not want to ever be bothered by even one unsolicited phone call. Thank you.